Should you or your school or early learning service be engaged with the Narragunnawali program and online platform outside of the RAP development/implementation process specifically, you are still welcome to host a link to www.narragunnawali.org.au on your website or open-source learning management system. Please ensure that the link is accompanied by the following descriptive text:

“Reconciliation Australia’s Narragunnawali: Reconciliation in Education program is designed to support all schools and early learning services in Australia to develop environments that foster a higher level of knowledge and pride in Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander histories, cultures and contributions. The Narragunnawali online platform is free to access and provides practical ways to introduce meaningful reconciliation initiatives in the classroom, around the school and with the community. To learn more, visit: www.reconciliation.org.au/narragunnawali.”

Please also contact us to inform us of your decision to host a link to the Narragunnawali platform on your website or elsewhere, and to request a high resolution version of the Narragunnawali logo, where appropriate.
